

Course title: Banking and stock market laws
Lecturer: Sonja Bunčić
Course status: Elective, Sixth Semester
ECTS: 7
Requirements: none
Course aims The aim of this course is for students to learn about the systems of legal regulations that regulate the status and operations of a bank, as well as with the laws that regulate banking activities; learning about the system of legal regulations that govern the status and operations of stock markets and brokers, and their activities.
Course outcome Teaching the students to recognize the position of banks in the economic system, to recognize banking activities and to realize the legal position of the stock market, broker/dealer firms, the central registry, and the committee for securities, and to learn about the nature of stock market operations.
Course content Theory classes: 1 st part Banking law: general and specific part (banking laws definition, sources of the banking law, historical development of banks and their activities, banking operations, banking remittance) 2 nd part Stock market laws: General and specific parts (stock market definition, historical development, traits of stock market law and its place in the legal system, legal position of stock markets and mediators) Practice classes: Field work through visiting banks and stock markets, analysis of banking and stock market operations.
Recommended Literature: 1. Cranston R, Principle of Banking Law , Oxford, 2005 2. Mattheias Haentjens, European Banking and Financial Law , Rutledge, 2015.
Number of active teaching classes	Theory classes: 3	Practice classes: 3
Teaching methods: Lectures, practice, consultations, seminar papers, dialogic and monologue method, independent and group work, interpretation of sources.
Knowledge assessment
Pre-exam tasks	points	Final exam	points
In-class activity	10	Written exam
Practice classes	10	oral exam	50
Mid-term tests	20
Seminar papers	10		