

Study programme: Applied Security
Course title: Methods and methodology of intelligence
Lecturer: Iztok Podbregar
Course status: Elective
ECTS: 12
Requirement: /
Course aims
The objective of the course is to study and learn about methods of intelligence that can be applied in the public and private sectors. The methodology is the basis for scientific research in a particular field.
Course outcomes
Students receive elementary knowledge from intelligence methods and can independently investigate scientifically and practically in the field of intelligence work.
Course content
Theory classes
Definitions of intelligence, Intelligence, cross-border security branch, The process of intelligence work, Secret cooperation, Technical and information sink in intelligence work, Analytics in intelligence, International cooperation, Open source intelligence (Open Source Methodology), Supervision and control of intelligence.
Practice classes
Duediligence and methods of intelligence work, Medical Intelligence (intelligence methods in the field of medicine and health) An open source analysis, Organization of intelligence work in the company.
Literature:
1. Podbregar I. (2012), Obveščevalno-varnostna dejavnost: procesi, metode i nadzor (naučna monografija) Univerza u Mariboru FVV.
Number of active teaching classes:		Theory classes: 4	Practice classes:
Teaching methods
Lectures and classes
Knowledge assessment (max 100 points)
Pre-exam tasks	Points	Final exam	Points
In-class activity		written exam
Practice classes		oral exam	40
Mid-term tests	60
Seminar papers
The above listed knowledge assessment means are just a few among different options (written exam, oral exam, project presentation, seminar papers etc)			