

Study programme: Security studies
Course title: International law
Lecturer: Siniša Domazet
Course status: Elective
ECTS: 6
Requirement: /
Course aims To familiarize students with the basic rules and principles that make up the modern international system..
Course outcomes The outcome of the course is that students: understand the origin, structure and essence of international relations; master the basic legal concepts of international law, as well as their elements and types; have the capacity to pursue legal reasoning and argumentative debate on legal issues; adopts basic legal knowledge of the application of international law in real social relations, master the art of interpreting international legal norms, and also understands the basic principles of international contract law and rules on the settlement of disputes in international relations.
Course content Theory classes Introduction to the subject; 1. Sources of international law; 2. Entities of international law; 3. State; 4. Non-territorial entities with elements of subjectivity-existing or at the stage of creation; 5. Cases sui generis; 6. Recognition of states and governments; 7. Basic rights and obligations of states; 8. State jurisdiction in international law; 9. State responsibility; 10. Succession of states, state borders and ways of acquiring state territory; 11. Rules of international contract law; 12. International organizations; 13. International War and Humanitarian Law; 14. Crimes against humanity and international law; 15. International Court of Justice. Practice classes Practice related to cases from legal practice and analysis of past cases.
Literature 1. Domazet, S: Pravne osnove bezbednosti, Univerzitet "Educons", Sremska Kamenica, 2017. 2. Kreća, M: Međunarodno javno pravo, Beograd, 2016. 3. Domazet, S: Praktikum za međunarodno privredno pravo, Novi Sad, 2017. 4. Domazet, S: Pravni režim državne pomoći za zaštitu životne sredine u Evropskoj uniji, Sremska Kamenica, 2016. 5. Avramov, S: Međunarodno javno pravo: kritička naučna misao o međunarodnom javnom pravu i međunarodnim odnosima, Beograd, 2011. 6. Malcolm Evans: International Law, Oxford University Press, 2018.
Number of active teaching classes: 7	Theory classes: 3		Practice classes: 4
Teaching methods Teaching is conducted through theory and practice classes. Practice classes are auditory and practical, and they solve tasks from individual chapters, provide additional explanations and examples to elaborate specific areas of the lectures. During the realization of the course, the student is obliged to do the planned practices. Knowledge assessment takes place through two mid-term tests. The condition for the final exam is that the student achieves 50% of the points with each pre-exam activity. The final exam consists of written exam. The student has passed the exam if achieves at least 16 points on the exam.
Knowledge assessment (max 100 points)
Pre-exam tasks	Points	Final exam	Points
In-class activity	10	written exam
Practice classes		oral exam	30
Mid-term tests	60
Seminar papers			