Explanation

Call for the selection of students were properly conducted at partner universities within the project 2023-1-RS01-KA171-HED-000130436. The evaluation procedure of the applied candidates was carried out on the basis of the criteria described in the competition, and in accordance with the rules of the Erasmus+ program and valid acts of the partner universities. After considering and evaluating the applications, the committee at the partner universities established that the selected candidates meet the selection criteria and made a ranking list, and submitted decisions on the results of the call for applicants to Educons University and nomination of candidates. In accordance with the available budget, the Educons University commission concludes that Erasmus+ student mobility will be financed for 2 (two) candidates. Selected students are obliged to properly submit all necessary documents, before, during and after the mobility. If one of the selected candidates withdrawn from the mobility, from the reserve list of candidates student can be selected for the mobility, in accordance with the available budget and a special decision of the Erasmus institutional coordinator.
